Night of Fright Haunted House Open Oct. 26 – 27 at Youth Activity Park

St. Charles County, Missouri — Dare to be scared as you walk through the Night of Fright Haunted House, nestled inside the recreation facility of St. Charles County’s Youth Activity Park, 7801 Highway N in Dardenne Prairie, Friday, Oct. 26 and Saturday, Oct. 27. This house of horror, created by St. Charles County Parks staff, is open from dusk to 10 p.m. each night. Designed for children ages 8 – 16, admission to the haunted attraction is only $5.

Enter at your own risk and explore a maze of haunted rooms filled with creepy creatures and frightful scenes. Get spooked for sure, as you crawl your way to safety. There’s a scary surprise around every corner of this fun haunted house!

After the scare, skateboard or rollerblade the night away in our 33,000-square-foot outdoor skate park. An activity waiver must be completed for all guests using the skate park, and helmets are required.

For more information about Night of Fright, contact the Youth Activity Park at 636.561.4964.
