Whoo-Hoo! St. Charles County Parks Offers Snow Day Activities February 5

St. Charles County, Missouri – With predictions of up to six inches of snow today, the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department is planning its first ever Snow Day at Quail Ridge Park, (5501 Quail Ridge Parkway, Wentzville, MO 63385), on Wednesday, Feb. 5. If area schools cancel classes on Feb. 5, then from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. children of all ages are welcome to come out to Quail Ridge Park and join St. Charles County Parks Department staff to participate in a variety of fun snow games, during this two-hour park program. In addition to traditional sledding activities in the park, participants can join in the fun of an exciting snowman building contest, park scavenger hunt and snow relays. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of each activity.

“Since Quail Ridge Park opened in July 2000, it has become a very popular place for children and adults alike to sled and recreate during snow days,” said St. Charles County Parks Director Bettie Yahn-Kramer. “This new Snow Day program also offers children a chance to participate in some fun, organized snow activities while having the day off school.”
