Enjoy Good Food, Live Music, Face Painting, and more at the Heritage Museum

St. Charles County, Missouri – For the first time ever, the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department is offering families the opportunity to experience good food, live music, face painting, and community fun during Music and Food Trucks at the Museum from 5 – 8 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 29 and Saturday, Sept. 26 at the St. Charles County Heritage Museum. Bring the family out for some tasty cuisine provided by popular food truck vendors and an evening of live entertainment.

On August 29, Leland's Road Band, known for its harmonic sounds, tight rhythm section, and a touch of sax and keys, will entertain guests from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m., while Brazil Express, Wayno's Mobile International Cuisine, The Meltdown, and Sia's Italian Ice serve up their best eats.

On September 26, Buskin' Bootleggers, one of St. Louis' premiere string bands, will perform from 5:30 – 7:30 p.m., while Brazil Express, Revel Kitchen, 2girls 4 wheels, Andrew's Bayou Ribs, Pyro Pizza, and Sarah's Cake Shop dish out their favorites to the crowd.

For more information about food vendors and entertainment for the evening, contact the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department at 636.949.7535. The St. Charles County Heritage Museum is located at 1630 Heritage Landing, St. Peters, MO 63303.

The St. Charles County Parks Music and Food Truck Night at the Museum is sponsored by Renewal by Andersen.
