ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – The first edition of the 2018 St. Charles County Park Activity Guide is now available online. The guide features programs from January through April and is the first of three to be published this year. When you explore the new guide, you discover everything fun in St. Charles County Parks!

Whether it's an awesome stargazing program, a free family hiking and campfire event, an exciting extreme sports class, or a hands-on maple syrup making lesson, the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department has something for citizens of all age and interests.

The guide is simple to use and available to view on our website at www.stccparks.org. You can choose the digital interactive version, or a printable form of the publication.

Stay tuned! The next guide will be released in May and the final guide of the year in September.

For more information or to register for a program, visit us online at www.stccparks.org or call the parks department at 636-949-7535.
