TRANSPORTATION DISCUSSION NEXT UP FOR COUNTY SPEAKER SERIES

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – The #SCCMore Speaker Series continues at 7 p.m. on March 20 with “Let’s Talk Transportation.” Amanda Brauer, Roads and Traffic Manager and Craig Tajkowski, County Engineer, team up at the Kathryn Linnemann Library Branch, 2323 Elm Street in St. Charles, to discuss transportation issues in St. Charles County. The discussion includes current and upcoming road projects, the Gateway Green Light program, future technological advances for transportation, and more. Residents are encouraged to ask questions following the presentation.

The #SCCMore Speaker Series is designed to encourage residents to learn about programs and services provided by St. Charles County Government, and to “see more” of what the County has to offer. Speakers for the bi-monthly series are St. Charles County elected officials and County staff, who address topics of interest to county residents. All programs are held from 7-8:30 p.m., at various libraries in the St. Charles City-County Library District.

The #SCCMore Speaker Series is free, but registration is requested. To register, or for information on future #SCCMore Speaker Series programs, visit sccmo.org/SpeakerSeries.
