GET 'LOCKED IN' AT THE YOUTH ACTIVITY PARK JUNE 2, JULY 7 AND AUG. 4

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – Stay up until the wee hours of the morning at the Youth Activity Park in Dardenne Prairie this summer! Youth 12 years and older can get “locked-in” the largest outdoor skate park in the Midwest on June 2, July 7 and Aug. 4 during our extreme-sports adventure in the park.

The fun begins at 6 p.m. on Saturday night in this safe, social environment, and ends at 6 a.m. the next morning. Enjoy playing outside around-the-clock on our 33,000-square-foot skate/bike course with nighttime lighting, sand volleyball court, and half court-basketball, then come inside the park complex to climb our 30-foot rock wall, play a game of ping pong, air hockey, fooseball, or video games on two big screen tv.

After enjoying pizza and fountain drinks at midnight, we'll play a few competitive games and relays on the course. Challenge your friends to a game of “S-K-A-T-E” or show off your latest moves in our best trick contest. Prizes will be awarded to the winners.

Cost of the program is $25 per youth and pre-registration is required. To register, call the parks department at 636-949-7535 or go online at <http://bit.ly/2eOatM2>. Participants must have a helmet and parent-signed waiver on file at the park.
