COMPETITORS WANTED FOR DISC GOLF GLOW NIGHT TOURNAMENT AT QUAIL RIDGE PARK

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – Get your drivers and putters ready for the annual Disc Golf Glow Tournament held Saturday, Sept. 8 at Quail Ridge Park near Wentzville! Skilled disc golfers and anyone new to the sport are invited to compete for cash and prizes at this nighttime tournament in the park.

In partnership with the St. Charles County Disc Golf Club, the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department is proud to present this fun disc-tossing tournament that offers a mix of short and long holes that travel in and out of the woods. Baskets lined with glow sticks mark the course of this 18-hole event. Each player will need to bring their own discs; a limited amount of LED lights will be available for purchase at the event.

Cost to enter the tournament is $10 per person and is limited to the first 72 players that register from 6:30–7:15 p.m. on the day-of event. The tournament kicks off at 7:30 p.m. with a shotgun start.

For more information about the tournament, call the St. Charles County Parks and Recreation Department at 636-949-7535.

Quail Ridge Park is located at 560 Interstate Drive in Wentzville. It was the first of three-disc golf courses to be built in St. Charles County's regional parks system. Conveniently located near the I-64/I-70 interchange, the course boasts challenges for beginners and experts alike and features long and short tee pads situated along rolling terrain and in wooded areas of park. Additional disc golf courses are located at Indian Camp Creek Park near Wentzville; and at College Meadows Park, located on the campus of St. Charles Community College in Cottleville. A new 'champion' premier course is being developed at The Park at New Melle Lakes near New Melle and is scheduled to open to the public next month.
