DANIEL BOONE 'COMES TO LIFE' JUNE 7 AT NATIONAL BOONE DAY

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – Celebrate the life of one of Missouri's greatest frontiersmen at National Boone Day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday, June 7, at The Historic Daniel Boone Home, 1868 Highway F in Defiance. Listen to Daniel Boone experts, participate in demonstrations relating to Boone's life, and enjoy half-price admission on tours of the Boone Home.

Renowned Boone Scholars Ted Franklin Belue and Ken Kamper will discuss a study of Boone's portrait and various topics on his life in Missouri. Visitors to this National Historic Site also can enjoy black powder demonstrations, learn about land surveying in the 1800s, and take a peek inside the open buildings throughout the village.

The Historic Daniel Boone Home is nestled in the rolling hills of Missouri's scenic wine country and overlooks the Femme Osage Valley. The home and surrounding village represent life in the early 1800s and bring the legacy of Daniel Boone to life. For more information or to register for National Boone Day, call 636-949-7535 or visit <http://bit.ly/2019NationalBooneDay>.

About St. Charles County Parks & Recreation

The St. Charles County Parks & Recreation Department was created in 1997 after voters approved a local use tax with the sole purpose of park land acquisition, development, operations and maintenance. The department's mission is to preserve natural and historic features in areas throughout the county for the use of future generations. Today, the department operates 15 parks and consists of 3,643 acres of acquired park land. From historic homesteads to a youth skate park; from camping, hiking, biking, and fishing to weddings and educational classrooms, there's something for everyone in St. Charles County Parks.

For more information and specifics about each park, amenities, trails, and more, visit stccparks.org.
