LEARN HOW TO MAKE ARROWHEADS WITH FLINTKNAPPING EXPERT AT HERITAGE MUSEUM OCT. 20

ST. CHARLES COUNTY, MO – Are you interested in the age-old art of making arrowheads and other edged stone tools? Then join flintknapping expert Larry Kinsella from 12 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 20, for Hands-On Heritage: Flintknapping at the St. Charles County Heritage Museum, 1630 Heritage Landing in St. Peters.

In this new hands-on class for beginners in flintknapping, participants will be guided through the process of making spear points, arrow points, knives, and a variety of other stone tools using chert and the traditional methods. Attendees also get to create and take home their very own stone.

Cost is $15 per person and pre-registration is required. For more information or to register, call the museum at 636-255-6000 or visit <http://bit.ly/2019FlintknappingatHeritageMuseum>. Participants are asked to wear long pants to the class.

About St. Charles County Parks & Recreation

The St. Charles County Parks & Recreation Department was created in 1997 after voters approved a local use tax with the sole purpose of park land acquisition, development, operations and maintenance. The department's mission is to preserve natural and historic features in areas throughout the county for the use of future generations. Today, the department operates 15 parks and consists of 3,643 acres of acquired park land. From historic homesteads to a youth skate park; from camping, hiking, biking, and fishing to weddings and educational classrooms, there's something for everyone in St. Charles County Parks.

For more information and specifics about each park, amenities, trails, and more, visit stccparks.org.
