Disc Golf Etiquette

- Please keep our parks clean. Leave the course cleaner than you found it.
- Watch for other people when throwing your shots.
- The player with the lowest score from the previous hole tees off first. It's the players' decision to determine who tees off on the first hole.
- After the tee shots, the player furthest from the hole throws first.
- If your disc lands out of bounds, mark the location where it went out and throw your next shot from that location with a one-stroke penalty.
- Each shot should be thrown from behind your "lie."
- Try to avoid moving or making noise while others throw.
- If a smaller or faster group is behind you, allow them to play through.
- Help others find their errant throws when possible.
- Be courteous to other park guests.
